Everybody likes a good story.

But what would you do if you discovered that the greatest love story of them all is actually true? And what if you found out that you are one of the main characters in the story? It may be hard to believe, but it's true!

Once upon a time there was a charming prince. Now, this prince fell in love with a beautiful woman. They were very happy, and planned to marry. One day, an evil monster tricked the beautiful lady. The monster carried her away to a dark castle guarded by a terrible dragon. When the prince heard that his lover had been captured, he set out at once to rescue her. The valiant prince found the castle, killed the dragon, vanquished the monster, and rescued his beloved. Then the prince took his beloved lady to his castle, married her, and they lived happily ever after.

All of this is true, and you are one of the main characters.

THE ORIGINAL VERSION

ONCE UPON A TIME: In the beginning, God, the great King of the universe, made a man and a woman. God made them just so He could pour out His love on them. The man, the woman, and God were living happily together until...

ONE DAY: An evil being, the devil, came into Paradise. This evil being tricked the woman into thinking she would be happier if she lived for herself rather than following God. The woman listened to the devil, rebelled against God, and encouraged the man to do the same. They both came under the power of the devil, were separated from God, and lived in a dark kingdom guarded by a great dragon (the devil is called the Serpent and the Dragon in the Bible).

TO THE RESCUE: But God, the great King, loved the man and woman so much that He devised a plan to rescue them from the dragon's power. God became a man (called Jesus, the Prince of Life), invaded the devil's evil kingdom, and even died so He could set the man and woman free. Then He came back to life, went back to His castle, and is awaiting His marriage. After that the great Prince will live happily ever after with all He has rescued from the dark kingdom.

LOVE PREVAILS: Sound familiar? The amazing thing is that the story is true, and you are the man or the woman in the story. You have followed the evil being into his dark kingdom and are now bound by your own rebellion against God. But God, in His great love for you, has come to the earth, lived as a man (Jesus, our Prince), and died for you to deliver you from your bondage. He invites you, right now, to come back to Him so you can live with Him in an eternal love relationship ("eternal life" in the Bible).

But this story has a little bit of a twist, You see, God respects your free will, and He will not deliver you unless you want Him to. If you want to come back to God and live with Him, you can be delivered from the kingdom of darkness by meeting these conditions:

1. Acknowledge that you have rebelled against God. (“All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.” Rom. 3:23)
2. Turn away from your lifestyle of selfishness. (“Repent for the forgiveness of your sins.” Acts 2:38)
3. Commit yourself to living the way God commands you to live—loving God, and loving others as yourself. (“Love the Lord your God, and love your neighbor as yourself.” Mark 12:30, 31)
4. Ask God’s forgiveness for your sins. (“If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins.” I John 1:9)
5. Take your hands off your own life and allow Jesus to be your Master. (“If you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.” Rom. 10:9, 10)
